Through the Kaleidoscope turning constantly,
We see varied patterns in every possible degree.
As one looks through this unique eyepiece,
One may see their destiny, appearing in the image
They wish it to be.

The reflections seen
  Are in every color imaginable,
As people are unique,
  In their own special way.
This we may see
  Through a multi-colored glass
As every person or thing is distinguishable.

Through this Kaleidoscope,
  One may see
The Universe, and its people ever changing.
  The particles viewed in a liquid solution
Surround it like a sea.
  Through a mi-nute lens
It has the shape of a ring.

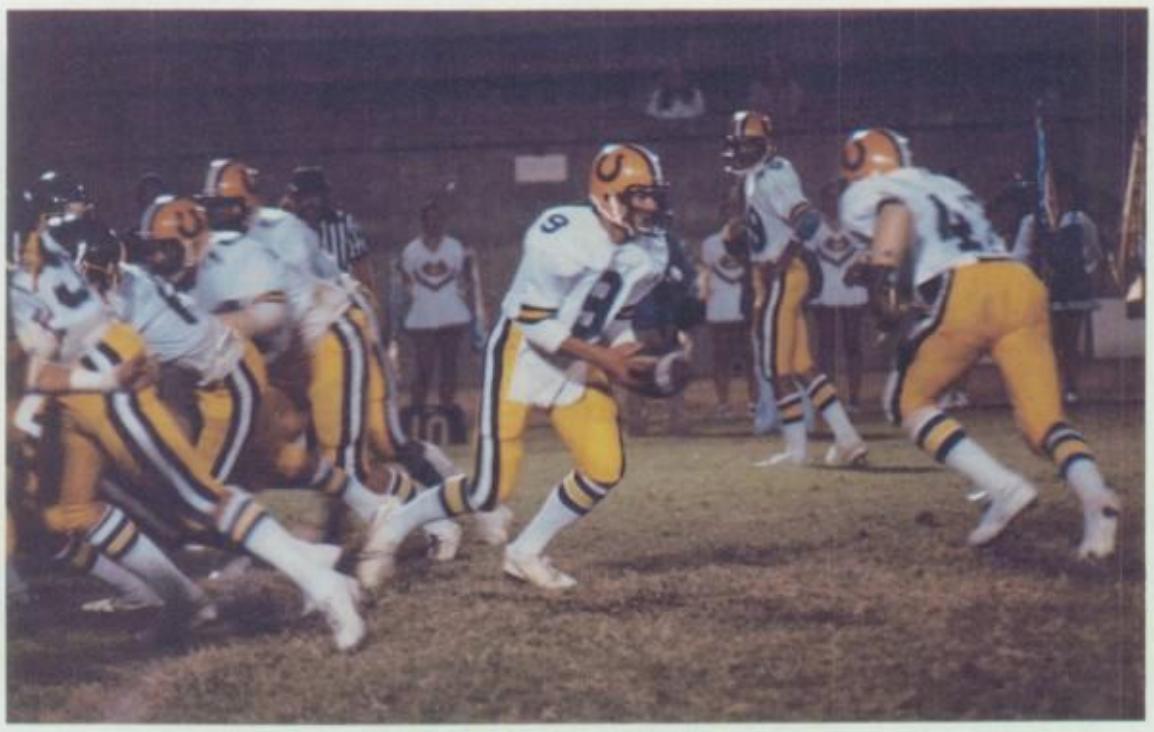
MULE POWER!!!



Coaches Katase, Lunetta, and Kuniyuki fielded a team that demonstrated spirit and discipline in every game. The schedule was rugged and our won-loss record did not reflect the outstanding quality of our team. Their determined play upheld the tradition of exciting football at Wilson High.

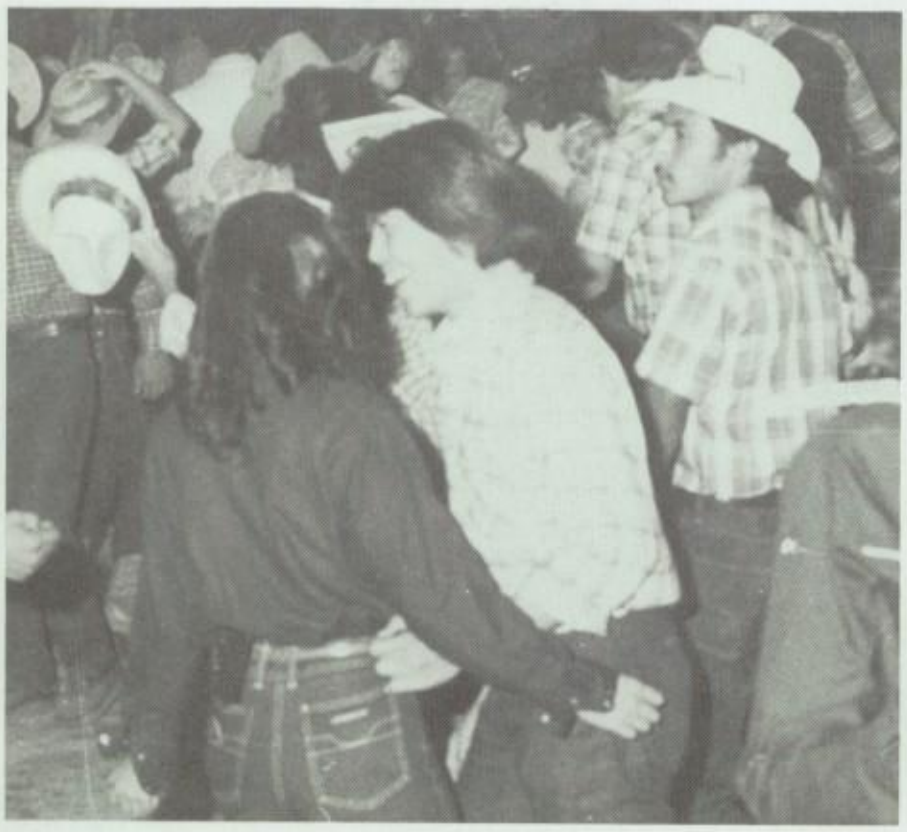
SPECIAL ACTIVITIES AND EVENTS

SADIE HAWKINS '82

The annual Sadie Hawkins dance for all those cowboys and cowgirls out there dancing to the sounds of Infinity was a memorable one. They got hitched by the Justice of the Peace, thrown in jail and mosied on down. Everyone had a mighty ya hoo of a time.

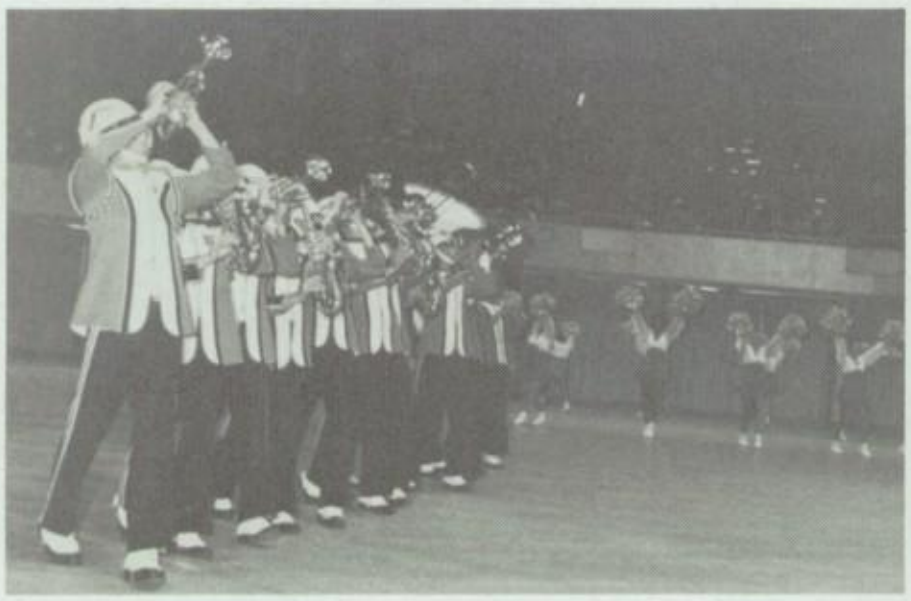


"A Very Special Night" was the theme of Sno-Ball '82. Students danced the night away to the lights and sounds of Enchante as they excitedly awaited the magical moment when the new Sno-Ball court would be announced. As time passed and the end drew near, students left with many memories of this "Very Special Night".

SNO-BALL '82

BAND AND DRILL TEAM COMPETITION

Wilson's Blue and Gold Marching Band and Drill Team performed stupendously in the 8th Annual Band and Drill Team Championship held in the Los Angeles Sports Arena. Congratulations and thanks are in order for these deserving students and their directors, Mrs. Ross and Mr. Knowlton. The long hard hours resulted in a second place award in the 2A Division. We won't soon forget those outstanding half-time shows! Keep it up Mules; because we're proud of you!



ALMOST ANYTHING GOES

Once again Wilson's student body showed their support at this year's "Almost Anything Goes". Although they did not gain first place, the Mighty Mules had great fun competing in the various events.

DONKEY

BASKETBALL

GAME

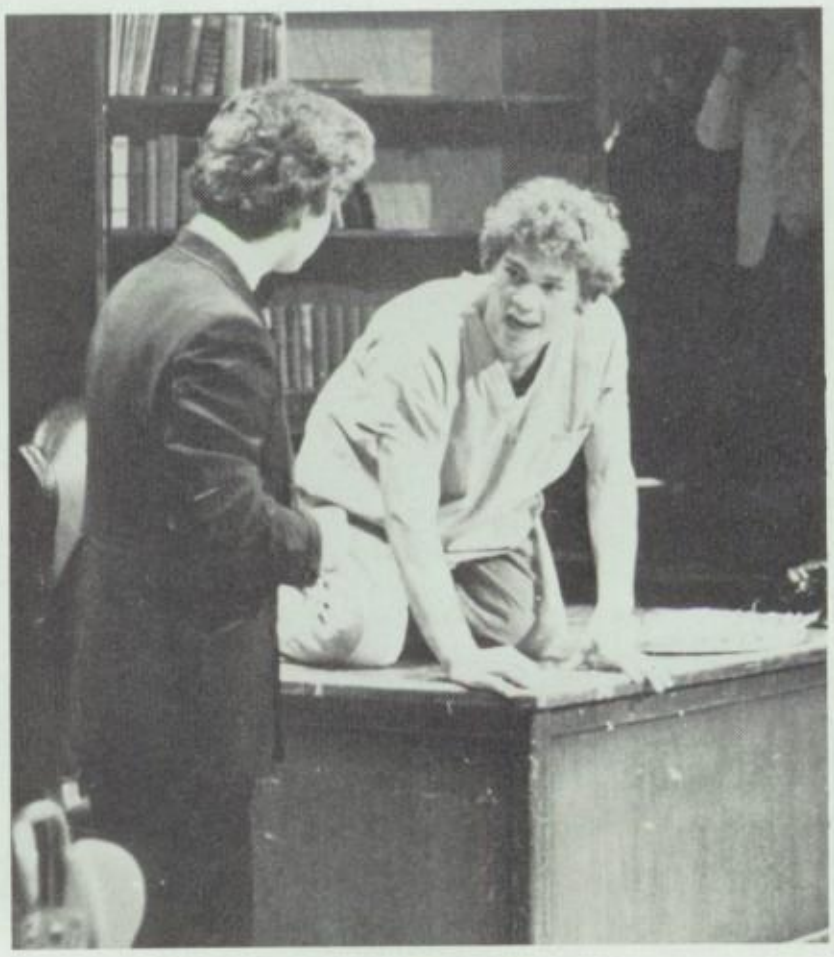
Our first annual Donkey Basketball Game was a victorious one for Wilson's Student Body. The Mules defeated the Muleskinners, the faculty, in an exciting and hilarious show of Wilson's spirit. Many of these players will not forget their frustrating, and sometimes futile, attempts to lead their unyielding mules first towards the stationary basketball and then towards their basket in an effort to score points for their team. Other players succeeded in budging their donkeys only after getting bucked off themselves. Many Wilsonites will remember this uncommon, yet amusing and entertaining, game as a wild event that really displays the Woodrow Wilson High School Mules' ceaseless stubborness!

"CHRISTMAS CAROL"

DRAMA-Fall production (clockwise): The Cratchets give thanks to God during a prayer before their Christmas dinner; The distinguished "Christmas Carol" cast; Ebenezer Scrooge travels back into his past; Everyone embraces in love as each are affected by the Christmas Spirit.

DRAMA-Spring production (counterclockwise): The mysterious Count Dracula; The Count's eerie enchantment effects females strangely; He charms all the ladies; The girl and her suitor; The doctor and one of his patients.

"COUNT DRACULA"



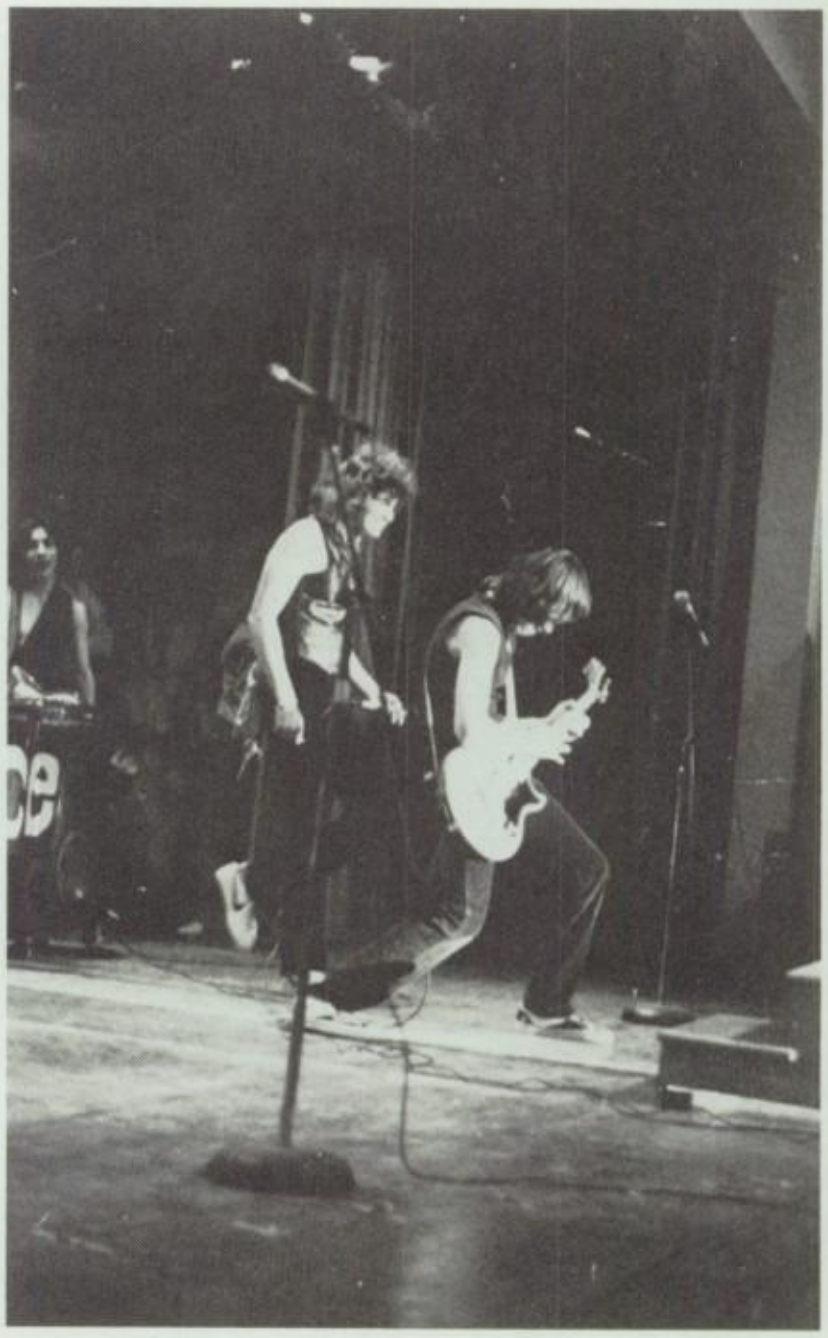
BATTLE OF THE BANDS

Wild! Loud! These words describe how Wilson's Battle of the Bands rocked. This event was a competition among rock bands. The bands were eligible with the rule that at least one member must be a Wilson student. The audience cheered on their favorite band as the different groups exhibited their talents.

INTERNATIONAL DAY - 82'

"Differences Makes Us Unique" was a truly a fitting theme for this event. The clubs sponsored booths on the quad of various cultures throughout the world. Everyone enjoyed sampling and comparing the diversity of delicious delicacies ranging from apple pies to fried wontons.

TALENT SHOW '82



In search of adventure, the audience was mysteriously led through the Time Machine as Wilson's annual "Talent Show" began. Thanks to the guidance and time spent under the direction of Miss Phillips, our show was a great success. It was a time when Wilson's talent shined as performers sang, boogied down, and strutted their stuff. The audience was captivated as skits were performed along with words from our sponsors. The newest addition to Wilson's spirited pep teams, "The 1982 Cheerleaders", displayed their unending hilarious talent in leading the audience in high spirited cheers. As the show drew to a close, everyone left with laughter and a song in their hearts thinking of next year's talent show.

HOOFPRINT STAFF

This 1981-1982 school year has proven to be a uniquely trying yet challenging one for the annual staff, newly designated the "Hoofprint Staff". Disadvantages the staff encountered that hindered its efforts to produce a flawless and creative yearbook include restriction of its contract with our yearbook company due to a decreased school budget, an inexperienced as well as oversized staff, and a new yearbook advisor. Although these difficulties existed, they did not prevail. Individuals on the staff eventually demonstrated their considerable talents in art, writing, and photography, and in doing so have compensated for the disadvantages. Furthermore, the unceasing efforts and personal commitment of Mr. Vendange, in his first year as Woodrow Wilson's yearbook advisor, and the diligence of various members of the staff have resulted in the successful completion of Hoofprints '82. The staff members can now relish at their leisure the contributions they made to its final production in a format somewhat different from that used in past annuals. The Hoofprint Staff 82's hope is that the rest of Wilson's student body will enjoy along with them the shifting patterns of memories captured in the "Kaleidoscope" edition.

Annual Advisor: Mr. Raphael Vendange; Fall Editor-in-Chief: Tracy Kurose; Spring Editor-in-Chief: Beverly Chin

Annual Staff- P. Trujillo, P. Bustos; Row 2: J. Soto, A. Tang, K. Sakurai, A. Ramirez, G. Garcia, C. Yeh; Row 3: C. Quan, N. Tam, B. Chin, S. Lim, S. Valenzuela; Not pictured: N. Fong, B. Lee, M. Vasquez, C. Wittman, Mr. R. Vendange (advisor).

Through the Kaleidoscope turning constantly,
  We see varied patterns in every possible degree.
As one looks through this unique eyepiece,
  One may see their destiny,
Appearing in the image they wish it to be.

As seen through the mirrors of endless time,
  A person may go back into the past,
May stand still for all eternity,
  May move forward into the future.

Our image of ourselves may differ
  From the way others view us.
Our destiny in life depends
  On where we decide our dreams will lead us.

For one moment it may stop,
  As if time itself has stopped.
This may be that moment
  As the device focuses.

The complex design of the Kaleidoscope ever changes.
